The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 17, to Saturday June 21, 1746.

By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

John Armagh. Newport, C.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath ſignified unto us his Royal Pleaſure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Firſt Day of July next, be further prorogued to Tueſday the Third Day of March following; We do therefore publiſh and declare, that the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tueſday the Third Day of March next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the 13th Day of June, 1746.

By their Excellencies Command,

Ja. Beleber.

God ſave the King.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, having been tranſmitted by Sir Thomas Hales, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty; Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Victory obtained over your rebellious Subjects, by your Majeſty's Forces, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

It can't but be Matter of great Satisfaction to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects to reflect, that this great Event, which has at once defeated the wicked Deſigns of the avowed Enemy of your Perſon and Government, and ſecured to them the Continuance of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equal Government, has been, under God, and your Majeſty, owing to the Valour and Conduct of that illuſtrious Hero.

Your Majeſty will therefore permit us to expreſs our moſt ſincere and lively Senſe of that univerſal Joy, which every loyal Subject to your Majeſty, and Friend to Religion and Liberty, muſt feel, upon exchanging the Apprehenſions of being expoſed to tyrannical and arbitrary Power, for the Proſpect of enjoying, in their utmoſt Extent, all the innumerable Benefits of our moſt excellent Conſtitution

The inviolable Regard your Majeſty has, for the Time paſt, ſhewn to the religious and civil Rights of your People, gives the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of your continuing the ſame gracious Protection to them for the future. In Confidence of which, we beg Leave to teſtify our moſt ardent Deſires, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, the Eleventh Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar in Council aſſembled, being deeply ſenſible of the many and valuable Bleſſings we have enjoy'd under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, do, with the greateſt Sincerity declare the vile Abhorrence we have ever had againſt the wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which was rais'd and promoted in this Kingdom in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, a meer Tool and Minion of the French King.

We have always look'd on the Support of your Majeſty's Government, to be the only true Intereſt of theſe Kingdoms; and the Authors and Abettors of this monſtrous Rebellion, to be a Sett of Men deſtitute of all Regard to their Country, who wanted to introduce Tyranny and Popery, in Exchange for our noble Liberties, Civil and Religious, the Expence of ſo much Blood and Treaſure, ſecur'd to us by the happy Revolution, and of which we have had the moſt ample Enjoyment under your auguſt Houſe.

OT

The Care which your Majeſty has taken in ſuppreſſing the Rebellion, has been highly agreeable to every Perſon, warm'd with the leaſt Zeal for the publick Good; and your ſending down his Royal Highneſs the Duke to command the Army, was ſuch an Inſtance of your paternal Goodneſs, as we hope will never be forgot by our lateſt Poſterity: It confounded our Enemies, gave freſh Spirit and Vigour to the Army, and ineffable Joy to every true Lover of his Country.

What has happened, has anſwered our warmeſt Expectations, and we highly felicitate your Majeſty on the joyful Event of a glorious and compleat Victory gained over the Rebels, by your Arms, under the Command of this illuſtrious Hero, whom we ſhall always look upon, under your Majeſty, as the Deliverer of our Country; and we hope God will preſerve him to be a further Bleſſing to theſe Nations, not only by ſettling the preſent Troubles, but likewiſe make him the Inſtrument in your Hand, of checking and diſappointing the ambitious Views of France, which are calculated not only to ſubvert our moſt excellent Conſtitution, but likewiſe the Liberties of Europe.

It was owing to the Inconſiderableneſs of our Community that we could not manifeſt what our Loyalty declared towards the ſuppreſſing of this unnatural Rebellion, but at the ſame Time it gives us inexpreſſible Joy, when we reflect on the ſteady and unſhaken Fidelity of every Individual in the Society, firm to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, and contributing all in their Power to aſſiſt and accommodate your Majeſty's Forces, even when the Rebels were oppreſſing the greateſt Part of this Country.

We beg Leave to conclude with aſſuring your Majeſty, in the ſincereſt Manner, that this our Addreſs is the Language of Hearts overflowing with Love and Gratitude, zealouſly attached to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and always ready to defend them to the utmoſt of our Power.

May Almighty God continue to bleſs and long preſerve your Majeſty to make theſe Kingdoms happy under your mild and auſpicious Government; and may the Britiſh Scepter continue to the lateſt Poſterity in your illuſtrious Houſe; that ſo we may always have a Proteſtant Sovereign to ſecure us in the Poſſeſſion of our moſt valuable Rights and Privileges.

Sign'd in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council.

Jo. Pollock, Provoſt.

Dublin, June 11.

This Day being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, the great Guns were fired in the Phœnix Park, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out on Oxmantown Green. At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices met at the Caſtle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction. And the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.
